

identities."

"Palestinians in the broad sense, meaning their struggle, regardless of their secondary identities who sees Palestinians as a part of the enemy,"

a game of hitting fighters with the need to compare or be alarmed by the effects of the costs, so there is no and endurance. We are far more capable elements, and the extent of Palestine makes that rely on multiplicity, the human losses will be much greater than the direct human and material,"

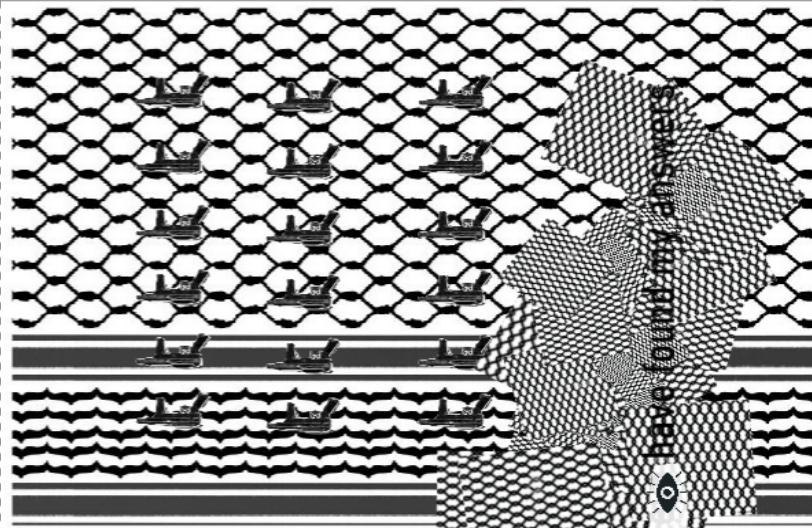

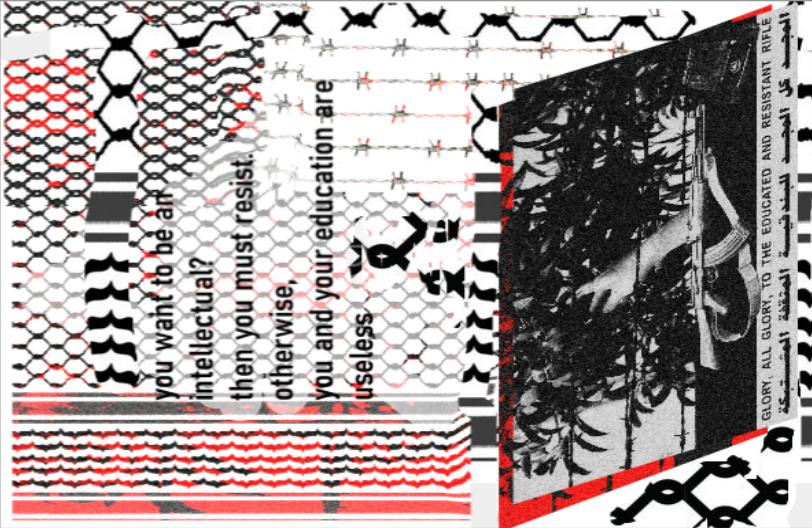

7. Today's wars are no longer just wars and classes between armies but rather are struggles like a solid structure and play magnitude of the numbers.

duty,"

cautious not to fall in your battle for Palestine, so be on the front lines of the

8. Finally, every Palestinian is

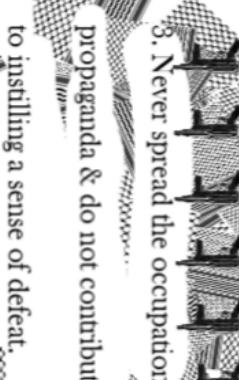

1. "The Palestinian resistance consists of guerrilla formations whose strategies follow the logic of guerrilla warfare or hybrid warfare..."

"...[Guerrilla] warfare is never based on the logic of the conventional wars and the defense of fixed points and borders..."

"...So, never measure it against conventional wars."

...Never spread panic...

4. The enemy may broadcast images of prisoners, most likely civilians, but the goal is to suggest the rapid collapse of the resistance. Do not believe that the resistance is collapsing.

5. The enemy will carry out tactical, qualitative operations to assassinate some symbols [of resistance] & all of this is part of psychological warfare.

Their goal is to influence the resistance's support base & [their] families as they are the only ones who can affect the resistance."

basil al-ara'i
eternal martyr of the pen and book
how do we get free?
how do we get free?

eight rules and insights followed by the resistance from his posthumously published text, "have found my answers" (2018)

This is part of the psychological warfare.
Do not let this weaken your resolve."